From

H. J. BHABHA, Esq

Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore
in the General and Revenue Depts Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that a Writer of the Central Book Depôt by name Ranga Rao completed his 60th year in December 1897. He seems vigorous and able for some time longer to do his work. I shall be glad if Government will be good enough to let me know whether, in the interests of younger men waiting for promotion, officials like Ranga Rao who though they are 60 years old are yet efficient and physically

But

As by Govt. Pro. No. 9050-82 / P&A 1105 dated 10th February 1897, Heads of Departments were empowered, under Clause (1) of article 309 of the Mysore Service Regulations, to declare any non Gazetted subordinates of their respective departments who have attained the age of 55 years to be efficient and to permit them to remain in the service for definite period up to, but not beyond the age of 60 years. Whereas in the present case, the Head of a department considers that an officials though past the age of 60 is yet efficient and physically fit, he should make a report of the same to Govt. and obtain their orders. No efficient official should be retired merely to make way for younger men waiting for promotion.
